Name: Leigh Fucetola Scholarship

Deadline: April 15, 2008

Details: The friends and family of Leigh Anne Fucetola have established a scholarship fund with the sole purpose of helping young women in their pursuit of a college education in the field of Engineering. Leigh was a Chemical Engineer, who at the age of 29 succumbed to renal cell cancer. It was her wish to encourage and support other young women to enter the field of engineering, and so her family and friends have taken up that cause to honor her memory.

They will be offering $1,000 each, to a young woman graduating Paul VI High School and Winslow Township High School who will fulfill the following criteria:

- Primarily the scholarship is for women only
- She must have a good academic high school record. She need not be the best student but must be in good standing, or have a particular gift in mathematics or the sciences
- She must attend an accredited college/university, majoring in engineering
- If there are many equal candidates, a committee will decide the recipient based upon need

- The applicant must complete the application and submit an essay for consideration by the Scholarship Committee
  - The applicant needs to submit a letter of recommendation from a science or math teacher
  - Please state the approximate amount of scholarship money received
